* All Wines are highly rated by Wine Spectator and Robert Parker.

This is an opportunity to obtain the perfect mix of varietals in order to achieve a level of diversity in your collection that your friends will envy! This collection of exceptional wines was procured from a love of wine collecting and the making of close friendships and philanthropic relationships over many years with the Vintners and Winemakers represented in this collection. A complete list of the collection is on display with the wines.

"Making good wine is a skill, making fine wine is an art." Robert Mondavi
